

WINTER RETREAT 2019 SCHEDULE: FEBRUARY 1-2

Andy,

We've confirmed our Teen Winter Retreat for Fri-Sat, February 1-2. The schedule is below to give you an idea of how the weekend will go. There are three message times for you and the clock is flexible, so you can speak anywhere between 20 and 45 minutes. We should have about 12-14 teens, plus a handful of adults. About half the teens come in on our bus and have less Bible knowledge, and there may be a couple of them unsaved, FYI. There's a big TV we hook a laptop to if you'd like to use any PowerPoint. The setting is very casual—I'll be in jeans and a t-shirt or button-down. You can join us for as much or as little of the schedule if you'd like. The meals are provided at the camp.

As far as lodging, the camp has some small "apartments" that we typically rent for speakers, but unfortunately they are reserved by another group. I'm on the waiting list for that, but your other options are 1) stay in a dorm-style room at the camp – You'd be the only one using the downstairs dorm room and bathroom/shower, but its bunk beds and it's connected to the rec area and so there will be noise while teens stay up and play games Friday night. 2) If you want to commute from home, it will likely be a little over an hour for you each way, but we would reimburse the mileage. Your fiancé is certainly welcome to join us for any part of the weekend she'd like—her lodging options would be similar.
